This presentation has been prepared by Tereos SCA exclusively for the purpose of a presentation to institutional investors concerning Tereos SCA and its consolidated subsidiaries ("Tereos"). This presentation includes only summary information and does not purport to be comprehensive. The information contained in this document has not been independently verified. No representation or warranty, express or implied, is made as to, and no reliance should be placed upon, the fairness, accuracy, completeness or correctness of the information or opinions contained in this document and none of Tereos or any other person, accepts any responsibility in this respect.

This presentation contains measures and ratios that do not comply with International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”), including EBITDA, Adjusted EBITDA, free cash flow and net debt, among others. Tereos presents these non-IFRS measures because it believes that they and similar measures are widely used by certain investors as supplemental measures of performance and liquidity. These non-IFRS measures may not be comparable to other similarly titled measures of other companies and may have limitations as analytical tools. Non-IFRS measures and ratios are not measurements of Tereos' performance or liquidity under IFRS and should not be considered to be alternatives to operating income or any other performance measures derived in accordance with IFRS. Furthermore, they should not be considered to be alternatives to cash flows from operating, investing or financing activities as a measure of our liquidity as derived in accordance with IFRS.

This presentation includes “forward-looking statements” about Tereos SCA and its subsidiaries (the “Group”), including in relation to its financial results, strategy, plans or intentions. These statements may also address management’s expectations regarding the Group’s business, growth, future financial condition, operational outcomes, and prospects. These forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties that may change at any time and, therefore, the Group’s actual results may differ materially from those that management expected. The Group has based these forward-looking statements on its current views and assumptions about future events. While it believes that these assumptions are reasonable, it is very difficult to predict the impact of known factors, and, of course, it is impossible to anticipate all factors that could affect the Group’s actual results. Results

A solid performance despite a gradually deteriorating market environment

RESILIENT RESULTS

_ Recurring EBIT margin above 5% and high EBITDA

- EBITDA of €801m, the 3rd highest in the history of the Group, following two record years
- Strong EBITDA level, even though it represents a -29% reduction compared to FY 23/24 level, as 23/24 results were at record high level
- Recurring EBIT of €405m (-52%), for a strong 6.8% EBIT margin – above 5%
- Neutral cash flow after CAPEX and before working capital variation: €-11m (vs. €+456m in 23/24)

NET DEBT REDUCTION AND LEVERAGE BELOW 3, DESPITE A DECREASE IN EUROPEAN SUGAR PRICES

_ Valuable diversification

- In Brazil, sugarcane crushing volume reached robust 20.4Mt
- World sugar prices ranged at relatively high levels compared to historical average, leading to good selling prices for our Sugar International division - although 4cts/lb lower than last year
- Starch & Sweeteners margins in line with expectation of €40m-€50m per quarter

_ Net debt reduction, despite a challenging price environment in Europe

- At the end of the fiscal year 24/25, net debt is lower than in March 2024 and leverage is below or medium-term target of 3x, despite a reduction in sugar prices in Europe that impacted the second half of the year

Sugar supply and demand status

- ✓ The perspective for 24/25 world crop deficit has increased to 4.9Mt, driven by strong reductions in the production forecasts for Brazil's center-south region (25/26 local crop) and India
- ✓ The Indian government's decision to authorize the export of one million tonnes and low import levels in China, coupled with macroeconomic factors such as the depreciation of the Brazilian real against the US dollar and hedge fund movements, were among the factors that prevented prices from rising, despite the supply and demand deficit.

Supply & demand risks flags

- ✓ The forecasts above show a return of the surplus in the last year of the series (2025/26), with strong recovery in India, Thailand and stable production in Brazil Center South
- ✓ But there is a big risk on both crops, with Brazil currently facing much lower-than-expected sugarcane yields (risk of -1.5Mt vs current forecast) at beginning of the campaign and India facing a shortage of seed cane in Uttar Pradesh (risk between -2.0Mt and -3.0Mt of net sugar production)

Business perspectives

SUGAR AND RENEWABLES EUROPE

- Tereos sugar beet campaign

_ For the next campaign (2025/26), Tereos' sugar beet acreage should remain stable compared with the current situation, while a reduction of around 8% is foreseen for the European market as a whole
As a reminder, over the past two years Tereos' Board has requested that cooperative members refrain from increasing their sugar beet surfaces, while the market saw a 12% increase

- Sugar prices in Europe

_ As we anticipated in previous releases, EU sugar prices negotiated since 2024 have seen a sharp decline compared to 2023/24 levels, which will lead to lower margins in 2025/26

SUGAR AND RENEWABLES INTERNATIONAL

- Sugarcane crushing volume

_ Some reduction in sugarcane crushing volume (up to -10%) is expected for the 2025/26 crop as result of weather conditions impacting yields in the Brazil Center-South region

- Increasing ethanol prices and world sugar prices lower than in 2024 but still at a descent level compared to historical average

_ Ethanol prices expected to recover in 2025/26 compared to previous years

STARCH, SWEETENERS AND RENEWABLES

- Selling volumes recovery should lead to some pressure in margins

_ The recovery in sales volumes following the halt of the Nesle plant is expected to put pressure on both selling prices and margins

Continued deployment of ambitious performance improvement initiatives on our 3 divisions

_ Improvements being deployed, covering industrial competitiveness (including energy consumption), SG&A optimization and agricultural performance

Update on medium-term targets and short-term perspectives

Medium-term view

From a medium-term perspective, Tereos has set the following targets:

Recurring EBIT margin	> 5%
Free cash flow before changes in working capital	Positive
Debt leverage ratio	< 3x

Potential conjunctural, short-term deviations

The recurring EBIT margin, financial leverage, and cash flow are key performance indicators for the Group. These target levels are pursued with a structural approach and a medium-term outlook.

However, due to the cyclical nature of the markets in which Tereos operates, temporary deviations may occur depending on the phase of the cycle in our various sectors.

The fiscal year 2025/26 will illustrate such a situation, and therefore, we anticipate:

The decline in selling prices in Europe, particularly in the sugar segment, will significantly impact our recurring EBIT margin and cash flow in 25/26, bringing these indicators well below our ambitious targets.
A gradual recovery is expected thereafter.

As a result, leverage in 25/26 is expected to peak temporarily at around 5.0x.

Tereos remains committed to its medium and long-term objectives and will continue to actively manage its indebtedness, leverage, and balance sheet strength to minimize short-term risks.
